Preface

Connecticut's Probate Courts are responsible for a broad range of cases involving children, seniors, persons with mental illness and adults with intellectual disability. The mission of the Probate Court system, given the sensitive nature of the matters that we handle, is to provide an approachable forum in which families can resolve their cases in a fair, prompt and economical manner. The purpose of Probate Court Rules of Procedure is to promote that mission.

This publication establishes uniform procedures for probate matters. It provides guidance in all areas of probate jurisdiction and is written in plain language to assist all those who have cases in the Probate Courts, including both self-represented individuals and attorneys. Streamlined procedures are designed to minimize expenses for parties and expedite resolution of cases.

Probate Court Rules of Procedure was first published in 2013. Since then, many who use the rules in their daily work have offered ideas on ways to improve the rules. We are grateful for the feedback and have incorporated many of your suggestions in this 2017 edition. Other revisions seek to improve clarity and address recent changes in statute and case law. The 2017 edition contains two new rules (rule 20, which establishes a procedure for court review of specific fiduciary activities and rule 21, which details the Probate Court mediation program), as well as revisions to several existing rules.

I want to thank the members of the Probate Court Rules Advisory Committee for their invaluable assistance in developing these rules and helping to keep them up to date. The exceptionally dedicated volunteers who serve on the committee are listed on the following page. They are judges, retired judges, court staff, attorneys and individuals with professional backgrounds in accounting and social services who have given generously of their time and expertise. I am truly indebted to them for their service. Credit for the heavy lifting of drafting and editing the rules belongs to Attorney David Biklen, the committee reporter, and my colleagues at probate administration, Attorneys Tom Gaffey, Bonnie Bennet and Heather Dostaler. Finally, I wish to convey my sincere appreciation to former Justice Peter Zarella, who has provided guidance and support in the development and periodic revision of these rules for the past five years.

Probate Court Rules of Procedure should be considered a work in progress because we are committed to continuous improvement in the way we handle cases. We welcome your suggestions for revisions and will continue to update the rules on a biennial basis.

(a) Except as provided by will, an executor or administrator shall not make distribution to, or on behalf of, an adult heir or beneficiary who has been adjudicated incapable of managing his or her affairs unless a conservator of the estate has been appointed or a court has determined that adequate alternative arrangements for the management of the financial affairs of the heir or beneficiary have been established. The court may require proof of the authority of a conservator or other representative to receive property on behalf of the heir or beneficiary.

(b) Except as provided by will, an executor or administrator shall not make distribution to, or on behalf of, an heir or beneficiary who is a minor residing in this state if the total amount of distributions from the estate is anticipated to exceed the amount under C.G.S. section 45a-631 unless a guardian of the estate has been appointed for the minor. If the minor resides outside this state, the executor or administrator shall not make distribution to, or on behalf of, the minor unless a guardian has been appointed for the minor under C.G.S. section 45a-632 or 45a-635 or the court has approved distribution in accordance with the requirements of the jurisdiction

A mutual distribution agreement under this subsection may provide for distribution of property to a person other than an heir.

(b) In a testate estate, a mutual distribution agreement is valid if all the beneficiaries whose interests are affected by the distribution execute the agreement in accordance with the requirements of C.G.S. section 45a-434. If a beneficiary under the will or any current or presumptive remainder beneficiary of a trust established under the will is a charity or charitable interest, a mutual distribution agreement is valid only if the Attorney General is party to the agreement. A mutual distribution agreement under this subsection may provide for distribution of property to a person other than a beneficiary under the will.

Section 30.18 Distribution that bypasses inoperative trust

An executor or administrator who proposes distribution from an estate directly to the beneficiaries of an inoperative trust rather than to the trustee shall file a motion for authorization to bypass the trust under C.G.S. section 45a-482. The court may hear the motion at the same time as the final financial report or account.

Section 30.19 When executor or administrator to submit financial report or account

(b) The fiduciary of the estate of an executor or administrator who dies while administering a decedent's estate shall file a final financial report or account on behalf of the deceased executor or administrator.

(c) On motion of a party or on the court's own motion, the court may direct the executor or administrator to file an interim financial report or account if necessary to protect the interests of the estate.

See rules 36 through 38.

Section 30.21 When executor or administrator to submit status update

(1) the approximate amount of distributions already made to the heirs or beneficiaries;

(2) the approximate amount of the estate on hand on the date of the status update; and

(3) the reasons why administration has not been completed.

(b) On motion of a party or on the court's own motion, the court may order the executor or administrator to take specific steps to expedite the administration of the estate.

(C.G.S. section 45a-98 (a) (6).)

Section 30.22 When inventory and final financial report or account excused

(a) The temporary administrator of a decedent's estate may petition the court to excuse the requirement of an inventory and final financial report or account by submitting a statement signed under penalty of false statement that the administrator did not take control of any assets or income of the estate. The administrator shall send a copy of the statement, at the time of filing, to each party and attorney of record and shall certify to the court that the copy has been sent.

(b) The court may excuse the requirement that the temporary administrator submit an inventory and final financial report or account if the court determines that the administrator did not take control of any assets or income of the estate.

(c) The executor or administrator of a decedent's estate may petition the court to excuse the requirement of an inventory and final financial report or account by submitting a statement signed under penalty of false statement that the estate has no assets and, if not previously filed, a return of claims. The executor or administrator shall send a copy of the statement, at the time of filing, to each party, creditor and attorney of record and shall certify to the court that the copy has been sent.

(d) When giving notice of the hearing on the acceptance of the statement under subsection (c), the court shall send notice to each creditor listed on the return of claims, in addition to notice to each party and attorney of record. (C.G.S. section 45a-317.)

Section 30.23 Use of affidavit in lieu of administration when full estate eligible to be settled as a small estate

(a) If a decedent's estate is opened as a full estate but is subsequently determined to be eligible for settlement as a small estate under C.G.S. section 45a-273, the executor or administrator may submit an affidavit in lieu of administration and request for order of distribution as a substitute for the inventory, return of claims and final account. The fiduciary shall send a copy of the affidavit and request for order of distribution, at the time of filing, to each party and attorney of record and shall certify to the court that the copy has been sent.

(b) The court may, after notice and hearing, approve the affidavit and request for order of distribution as a final account if it determines that the affidavit and request for order of distribution are sufficient to review the fiduciary's management of the estate.

Section 30.24 Administrative closure of decedent's estate

(a) The court may, after notice and hearing, close a decedent's estate administratively before receipt of a final financial report or account and before expiration of the period specified in C.G.S. section 45a-331 if the court finds that:

(1) the clerk has made reasonable efforts to remind the executor or administrator, in writing, of the requirements to complete the administration;

(2) the executor or administrator has neglected or refused to complete administration;

(3) appointment of a successor executor or administrator would serve no useful purpose; and

(4) no party objects to the administrative closure.

(b) The administrative closure of an estate shall not relieve the executor or administrator from any liability or obligation. Except as provided in C.G.S. section 45a-331, the court shall not release any existing probate bond or restricted account.

(c) The court may, at any time and without notice and hearing, reopen an estate that has been administratively closed.

(Probate Court Rules, rules 3 and 8.)

(b) If a beneficiary under a will or any current or presumptive remainder beneficiary of a trust established under the will is a charity or charitable interest, the court shall send written notice of the declination to the Attorney General.

(Probate Court Rules, section 8.10.)

Section 30.26 Withholding of distribution when heir or beneficiary charged with certain crimes

On motion of the victim advocate, state's attorney or official having an equivalent role in another jurisdiction or on motion of a party or court-appointed guardian ad litem, the court shall direct the executor or administrator to withhold any distribution to an heir or beneficiary if the court finds that the heir or beneficiary has been charged with a crime listed under C.G.S. section 45a-447. On final disposition of the charge, the court shall determine the eligibility of the heir or beneficiary to receive distributions under C.G.S. section 45a-447.

Section 36.1 Methods of accounting

Except as provided in section 36.3, a fiduciary required or permitted to account to the court for the management of an estate may satisfy the legal requirements of an account by submitting a financial report meeting the requirements of rule 37. If an account is required instead of a financial report, the fiduciary shall submit an account meeting the requirements of rule 38. Nothing in this rule prevents a fiduciary from submitting an account instead of a financial report.

(C.G.S. sections 19a-301, 45a-98 (a) (6), 45a-143, 45a-175 through 45a-180, 45a-242 (b), 45a-317 (f), 45a-489a (d), 45a-517, 45a-559d, 45a-654 (f), 45a-655 (c) and 45a-660 (b).)

Section 36.2 Financial reports distinguished from accounts

A financial report is a simplified form of accounting by which a fiduciary provides summary information about the management of an estate. A financial report differs from an account in the following ways:

(1) principal and income need not be reported separately;

(2) assets may be reported at current fair market value rather than fiduciary acquisition value; and

(3) a financial report need not balance in the manner required for an account.

(Probate Court Rules, rules 37 and 38.)

Section 36.3 When account is required instead of financial report

(a) A fiduciary shall submit an account rather than a financial report if the fiduciary is required to account separately for principal and income under section 38.1.

(b) On motion of a party or on the court's own motion made before approval of a financial report, the court may require the fiduciary to submit an account instead of a financial report if the court determines that an account is necessary to review the fiduciary's management of the estate.

Section 36.4 Financial reports and accounts to present information in clear manner and be signed under penalty of false statement

(a) A fiduciary submitting either a financial report or an account to the court shall present all required information in a concise, clear and understandable manner and in sufficient detail so that the court and the parties can review the fiduciary's management of the estate.

(b) A fiduciary shall sign a financial report or account under penalty of false statement.

(c) A fiduciary may submit a financial report or account on a form published by the probate court administrator or in any format that satisfies the requirements of rules 36 through 38.

Section 36.5 Fiduciary to send copy of financial report or account and affidavit of closing to each party and attorney

(a) A fiduciary submitting a financial report, account or affidavit of closing shall send a copy, at the time of filing, to each party and attorney of record and shall certify to the court that the copy has been sent.

(b) If a beneficiary is a charity or charitable interest, the fiduciary shall send a copy of each financial report, account or affidavit of closing, at the time of filing, to the Attorney General and shall certify to the court that the copy has been sent.

(C.G.S. section 45a-175.)

Section 36.6 When executor or administrator to submit financial report or account

See section 30.19.

Section 36.7 When trustee to submit financial report or account

See section 32.5.

Section 36.8 When final financial report or account of trustee excused

See section 32.7.

Section 36.9 When conservator to submit financial report or account

See section 33.14.

Section 36.10 Periodic or final financial report or account excused when person under conservatorship is Title 19 recipient

See section 33.17.

Section 36.11 When guardian of estate to submit financial report or account

See section 34.8.

Section 36.12 Affidavit of closing

(a) If the court directs the fiduciary to file an affidavit of closing, the fiduciary shall file the affidavit in accordance with this section not later than 30 days after completing distribution of all assets on hand.

(b) The affidavit of closing shall itemize each transaction since the end of the accounting period of the fiduciary's final financial report or account and shall include:

(1) the reserve shown on the final financial report or account;

(2) income or assets received; and

(3) amounts disbursed from the reserve and additional income and assets.

(c) The affidavit shall include a statement that assets in the fiduciary's control have been distributed in accordance with the final financial report or account and that the estate is fully settled.

(d) Except for amounts shown as reserve on the financial report or account or additional income or assets received after the end of the accounting period, the affidavit shall not modify any item that would alter a beneficial interest previously adjudicated in the allowance of a financial report or account.

(e) The affidavit shall be signed under penalty of false statement.

(f) The court may accept the affidavit without notice and hearing.

Section 36.13 Records to be maintained by fiduciary

(a) A fiduciary shall maintain complete records of the fiduciary's management of the estate including, but not limited to:

(1) each accounting, report, journal or ledger used in managing the estate and each electronic equivalent thereof, including all data recorded with accounting software;

(12) detailed payroll information for each employee engaged or paid by the estate for each pay period, including time reporting records, original payroll registers, journals, and reports and copies of all Internal Revenue Service Forms 941, 942, W-3 and W-2 and other payroll tax returns;

(b) The fiduciary shall not destroy any estate financial records until the court approves the fiduciary's final financial report or account, the conclusion of any appeal, or the termination of any other applicable record retention requirement, whichever is later.

Section 36.14 Definition of fiduciary acquisition value

(a) The fiduciary acquisition value of an asset is:

(1) for a decedent's estate, the fair market value of the asset on the date of death;

(2) for a trust, the fair market value of the asset on the date of death of the testator or settlor or on any other basis for value that the court directs after considering the nature of the trust and the manner in which it was funded; and

(3) for a conservatorship, guardianship or any other estate not specified in this section, the fair market value of the asset on the date of appointment of the first fiduciary.

(b) The fiduciary acquisition value of an asset that a fiduciary purchases during the course of administration is the sum of the purchase price of the asset and expenses directly related to the purchase.

(c) The fiduciary acquisition value of an asset shall not be changed based on unrealized gain or loss owing to fluctuations in market value.

(d) The fiduciary acquisition value of an asset shall be adjusted to reflect transactions in which:

See rule 8.6.

Section 40.2 Appointment of attorney and guardian ad litem for minor

(a) The court may appoint an attorney for a minor under C.G.S. section 45a-620.

(b) If the court determines that the minor is unable to express his or her wishes to the attorney, the court may appoint the attorney to serve as both attorney and guardian ad litem.

(c) If the court determines that the minor’s wishes, if followed, could lead to substantial physical, financial or other harm to the minor, the court may appoint an individual as attorney for the minor and another individual as guardian ad litem for the minor.

(C.G.S. sections 45a-132, 45a-717 (b) and 46b-172a (c); Probate Court Rules, rule 13.)

Section 40.3 Immediate temporary custody of a minor

(a) A petitioner seeking to remove a parent or other guardian under C.G.S. section 45a-613 or 45a-614 or to terminate parental rights under C.G.S. section 45a-715 (a) may petition for immediate temporary custody of the minor. A parent may file a petition under this section.

(b) In subsections (c), (d) and (e), the phrase “in the custody of the parent or other guardian,” when used in C.G.S. section 45a-607 (b), refers to the current physical care of the minor at the time a petition for immediate temporary custody is filed, not the legal rights of the parent or guardian regarding the custody or guardianship of the minor.

(c) Except as provided in C.G.S. section 45a-607 (b) (2), the court may not grant a petition for immediate temporary custody of the minor on an ex parte basis if the minor is in the custody of the parent or other guardian.

(d) If the minor is not in the custody of a parent or other guardian, the court may grant a petition for immediate temporary custody of the minor on an ex parte basis as provided in C.G.S. sections 45a-607 (b) (1) through 45a-607 (b) (3).

(e) If the minor is in the custody of a parent or guardian who is the petitioner, the court may grant a petition for immediate temporary custody of the minor on an ex parte basis as provided in C.G.S. sections 45a-607 (b) (1) through 45a-607 (b) (3).

(C.G.S. section 45a-604; Probate Court Rules, rule 69.)

Section 40.4 Order for immediate temporary custody without notice and hearing

(a) The court may act on a petition for immediate temporary custody under C.G.S. section 45a-607 (b) without notice and hearing.

(b) If the court determines that it is necessary to meet with the petitioner before deciding a petition for immediate temporary custody on an ex parte basis, the court shall make an audio recording of the meeting. The recording shall be available to the parties. If the court grants immediate temporary custody and the temporary custody hearing required by C.G.S. section 45a-607 (b) (3) is contested, the judge who met with the petitioner shall be disqualified from conducting the temporary custody hearing.

(c) In a proceeding under this section, the court may, in addition to the criminal background check required under section 40.15, obtain a search of the registry of protection orders to determine whether there have been any orders protecting or restraining any of the following individuals:

- (1) a proposed temporary custodian;
- (2) an individual living in the household of the proposed temporary custodian; or
- (3) any other person if necessary to protect the interests of the minor.

(Probate Court Rules, rules 65 and 69.)

Section 40.5 Appointment of temporary custodian on consent

(a) If a parent or guardian of a minor consents to the grant of temporary custody in connection with a petition that names a proposed temporary custodian, the court shall not appoint another individual as custodian unless:

(1) the parent or guardian consents to the appointment of the other individual;

(2) the original petition alleges grounds for temporary custody other than consent of the parent or guardian, and the court makes the findings required under C.G.S. section 45a-607 (d);

(3) a person authorized under C.G.S. section 45a-614 files a petition for immediate temporary custody, and the court makes the findings required under C.G.S. section 45a-607 (b); or

(4) a person authorized under C.G.S. section 45a-614 files a new or amended petition alleging grounds for temporary custody, and the court, after notice and hearing in accordance with C.G.S. section 45a-607 (c), makes the findings required under C.G.S. section 45a-607 (d).

(b) If the court grants immediate temporary custody under subsection (a) (3), the court shall give notice and conduct a temporary custody hearing in accordance with C.G.S. section 45a-607 (b) (3).

(C.G.S. section 45a-604; Probate Court Rules, rule 70.)

Section 40.6 Removal and appointment of guardian on consent

If a parent or guardian consents to removal as guardian in connection with a petition that names a proposed guardian, the court shall not appoint another individual as guardian unless:

(1) the parent or guardian consents to the appointment of the other individual as guardian;

(2) the original petition alleges grounds for removal other than consent of the parent or guardian, and the court makes the findings required under C.G.S. section 45a-610; or

(3) a person authorized under C.G.S. section 45a-614 files a new or amended petition alleging grounds for removal, and the court, after notice and hearing in accordance with C.G.S. section 45a-609, makes the findings required under C.G.S. section 45a-610.

Delivery of the notice of the competing removal petition by personal service on the respondent is not required.

(C.G.S. sections 45a-613 and 45a-614; Probate Court Rules, section 6.1 (a) (3) and rule 8.)

Section 40.7 Reinstatement as guardian

Except as provided under C.G.S. section 45a-611, a parent or guardian who was removed as guardian of a minor may file a petition seeking reinstatement as guardian. The petitioner shall have the burden of proving that the factors that resulted in removal have been resolved satisfactorily. If the court finds that the parent or former guardian has met the burden of proof, the court shall determine whether reinstatement of the parent or former guardian is in the minor's best interests. The evidentiary standard for the findings in this section and C.G.S. section 45a-611 is preponderance of the evidence.

(C.G.S. sections 45a-604 and 45a-616a.)

Section 40.8 Temporary guardianship

A parent or guardian may petition to appoint a temporary guardian for a minor without another parent or guardian joining as copetitioner. The court shall give notice to each party, including a nonpetitioning parent or guardian, and each attorney of record.

(C.G.S. section 45a-727 (c).)

Section 40.11 Appointment of out-of-state child-placing-agency as statutory parent to give child in adoption

An out-of-state child-placing-agency may petition to be appointed as statutory parent of a minor whom the agency has placed for adoption in this state under the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children. The court may appoint the agency as statutory parent if the court finds that:

(C.G.S. sections 45a-707 and 45a-733.)

Section 40.13 Notice in adult adoption proceeding

In a proceeding to approve an adult adoption, the court shall give notice to each party and attorney of record. The court may give notice to other persons interested in the welfare of the parties, including relatives and friends of the proposed adoptive parent and adopted person.

(b) The party moving for transfer under subsection (a) shall send a copy of the motion to each party and attorney of record and shall certify to the court that the copy has been sent.

(c) If the motion to transfer is filed by a party other than the party who petitioned for removal or termination, the court shall, without notice and hearing, grant the transfer not later than five days after receipt of the motion.
