Notice Applicable to all Principals and Sureties

Surety for a fiduciary serving with one or more co-fiduciaries: By becoming a surety on the probate bond of a co-fiduciary, you accept the obligation to pay the damages resulting from a breach of any condition of a co-fiduciary's bond, upon determination of the amount of damages in accordance with law.

Agreements between fiduciary and surety: A surety must disclose to the Probate Court and immediately furnish the court a copy of any agreement between the surety and fiduciary relating to the suretyship or its continuation.

Principal and surety – obligation and penalty of bond extend to real estate and assets under an Order and Agreement/Restriction on Control of Assets. While the amount of this bond may be less than would otherwise have been required, either because an asset of the estate is real estate or because an asset of the estate is subject to an Order and Agreement/Restriction on Control of Assets, the obligation and penalty of this bond nevertheless extend to all duties of the fiduciary, including duties with respect to the real estate or an asset subject to the Order and Agreement/Restriction on Control of Assets.
