- Instructions:
- 1) Any adult person may use this form to petition to place an adult with intellectual disability in the custody and control of the Department of Developmental Services for placement in an appropriate setting. "Intellectual disability" is defined in C.G.S. section 1-1g, as "a significant limitation in intellectual functioning existing concurrently with deficits in adaptive behavior that originated during the developmental period before eighteen years of age." A "significant limitation in intellectual functioning" is defined as an intelligence quotient ("IQ") more than two standard deviations below the mean, as measured by standard tests of general intellectual functioning. This means that the person's IQ must be 69 or less.
  - 2) The person for whom placement is being requested is referred to as the respondent.
  - 3) The petition should be filed in the court for the probate district in which the respondent resides.
  - 4) For more information, see C.G.S. section 17a-274.
  - 5) Type or print the form in ink. Use an additional sheet, or PC-180, if more space is needed.
