H. MANTON AHLBERG
1923 - 1990

Kurt M. Ahlberg was elected as Judge of Probate for the District of Stratford in 2014 and took office in January 2015. He has been a practicing attorney in Stratford for thirty-eight years with a specialty in elder law, which includes preparation of wills, estate planning, Title XIX planning and application and probate. His practice also includes real estate transactions, small business formation and some civil litigation.

Judge Ahlberg received his B.A. from Fairfield University in 1974 and his J.D. from the University of Connecticut Law School in 1977. He is a past member of a local panel of the Statewide Grievance Committee, which oversees complaints against attorneys. He also served as an Assistant Town Attorney for the Town of Stratford for over 15 years, and is a member of the Elder Law Sections of both the Connecticut and Greater Bridgeport Bar Associations, the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys, and has served as an attorney fact finder/arbitrator in Bridgeport Superior Court.

Judge Ahlberg practiced law with his father, H. Manton Ahlberg, until his death in 1990. In 2014, he was joined in his law practice by his nephew, Carl A. Glad, with whom he is now in partnership under the firm name of Law Offices of Kurt M. Ahlberg, LLC.

He is a life long Stratford resident, and continues to reside in Stratford with his wife of over forty years, Kathi. They have three grown children and four grandchildren. He has been active in numerous civic and youth organizations throughout his life.
