

Attorney George L. Kennedy

RESUME

17 Maple Street
Jewett City, CT 06351
860-376-2567

(email: kennedylawfirm@hotmail.com)

EMPLOYMENT:

1980-present: Attorney – operating own law practice in Jewett City, Connecticut, Concentrating on Juvenile Court (delinquent & civil); Family Court; Criminal (private and Court Appointed Public Defender); and Probate Court.

1980-1981: Clerk Superior Court – Per diem, New London County Courts.

1990-2010: Probate Judge – simultaneously with law practice, Griswold, Connecticut.

2010-present: Special Master (mediation) for contested family cases, New London County.

2011-2012: Focus on K.I.D.S. Trained. Co-facilitator, subcontracted by: United Services

2011-present: FVEP: Co-facilitator/male & female classes in both Dayville and Willimantic, subcontracted by: United Services.

2013-present: Registrar of Voters, Jewett City, Connecticut.

2014-2016: Parent Project: Certified Facilitator of program via United Services.

EDUCATION:

B.A. – Ithaca College, Ithaca, New York, Political Science.

M.A. – George Washington University, Washington, D.C., Legislative Studies.

J.D. – Vermont Law School, S. Royalton, VT, Law.

COMMUNITY: Past and present, including:

CBA Children & the Law Committee Chair/Member; Fire Fighter 1; Fire Police; Little League manager; Youth Soccer Club; Lions Club; Rotary Club; Senior Citizens Advisory Board; Zoning Board of Appeals; Park Events Board; National College of Probate Judges.

CONTINUING EDUCATION: including:

Mediator Training – Program Certification.

Juvenile Court and Family Court related via online/person and Superior Court programs.

Probate Court courses, via the Office of the Probate Court Administrator and the National College of Probate Judges.

Connecticut Bar Association and related institutions: Primarily Family and Probate matters.

United Services required courses including those required by CCSD, CCA/DV Connecticut-elective courses such as Brain Trauma & DV.