If an account is required instead of a financial report, the fiduciary shall submit an account meeting the requirements of rule 38. Nothing in this rule prevents a fiduciary from submitting an account instead of a financial report.

Section 36.2 Financial reports distinguished from accounts

A financial report is a simplified form of accounting by which a fiduciary provides summary information about the management of an estate. A financial report differs from an account in the following ways:

- (1) principal and income need not be reported separately;
- (2) assets may be reported at current fair market value rather than fiduciary acquisition value; and
- (3) a financial report need not balance in the manner required for an account.

Section 36.3 When account is required instead of financial report

(a) A fiduciary shall submit an account rather than a financial report if the fiduciary is required to account separately for principal and income under section 38.1.

(b) On motion of a party or on the court's own motion made before approval of a financial report, the court may require the fiduciary to submit an account instead of a financial report if the court determines that an account is necessary to review the fiduciary's management of the estate.

Section 36.4 Financial reports and accounts to present information in clear manner and be signed under penalty of false statement

(a) A fiduciary submitting either a financial report or an account to the court shall present all required information in a concise, clear and understandable manner and in sufficient detail so that the court and the parties can review the fiduciary's management of the estate.

(b) A fiduciary shall sign a financial report or account under penalty of false statement.

(c) A fiduciary may submit a financial report or account on a form published by the probate court administrator or in any format that satisfies the requirements of rules 36 through 38.

Section 36.5 Fiduciary to send copy of financial report or account and affidavit of closing to each party and attorney

(a) A fiduciary submitting a financial report, account or affidavit of closing shall send a copy, at the time of filing, to each party and attorney of record and shall certify to the court that the copy has been sent.

- (1) the reserve shown on the final financial report or account;
- (2) income or assets received; and
- (3) amounts disbursed from the reserve and additional income and assets.

(c) The affidavit shall include a statement that assets in the fiduciary's control have been distributed in accordance with the final financial report or account and that the estate is fully settled.

(d) Except for amounts shown as reserve on the financial report or account or additional income or assets received after the end of the accounting period, the affidavit shall not modify any item that would alter a beneficial interest previously adjudicated in the allowance of a financial report or account.

(e) The affidavit shall be signed under penalty of false statement.

(f) The court may accept the affidavit without notice and hearing.

Section 36.13 Records to be maintained by fiduciary

(a) A fiduciary shall maintain complete records of the fiduciary's management of the estate including, but not limited to, the paper copy or electronic equivalent of:

- (12) detailed payroll information for each employee engaged or paid by the estate for each pay period, including time reporting records, original payroll registers, journals, and reports and copies of all Internal Revenue Service Forms 941, 942, W-3 and W-2 and other payroll tax returns;
- (13) details of each contracted service provider engaged or paid by the estate for each calendar year, including original invoices from contractors and copies of all Internal Revenue Service Forms 1096 and 1099 and other tax forms;

(3) for a conservatorship, guardianship or any other estate not specified in this section, the fair market value of the asset on the date of appointment of the first fiduciary.

(b) The fiduciary acquisition value of an asset that a fiduciary purchases during the course of administration is the sum of the purchase price of the asset and expenses directly related to the purchase.

(c) The fiduciary acquisition value of an asset shall not be changed based on unrealized gain or loss owing to fluctuations in market value.

(d) The fiduciary acquisition value of an asset shall be adjusted to reflect transactions in which:
